

SPEAKER PROFILE

Miles & More GmbH Harald Deprosse

Managing Director

Harald Deprosse, born in 1965, is Managing Director of Miles & More GmbH. As a 100% subsidiary of Deutsche Lufthansa AG, Miles & More GmbH brings together programme operation worldwide, awards business and partnerships of the largest frequent flyer and awards programme in Europe.

Deprosse is responsible for the Finance & Operations MMG business area, which includes the Product Development & IT, Customer Services & Logistics, Finance & HR and Legal departments. He manages the business jointly with Sebastian Riedle, who oversees the Commercial MMG business area including the Financial Services & Innovations, Sales & Retail, Analytics & Customer Intelligence, Business Development & Award Program and Marketing departments.

The industrial engineering graduate Deprosse has more than 20 years of experience in the Lufthansa parent group and has been Managing Director of Miles & More GmbH since 2014. He began his professional career in 1993 with Roland Berger Strategy Consultants. After six years, Deprosse joined Deutsche Lufthansa AG where he held a variety of management positions in the areas of strategy, planning, operations and control with Lufthansa Passenger Airlines. From 2011 to 2014, as Vice President, he was responsible for the Miles & More programme.

Deprosse is married and lives with his family on the edge of the Odenwald mountain range. He loves rock music and is a passionate guitar player. His hobbies also include cycling and travelling.