

Award Flights

Explore the whole world with Miles & More and Star Alliance<sup>1</sup>

Star Alliance Award Flights allow you to combine flights offered by Star Alliance partners and other airline partners within one Award Flight.<sup>2</sup> For Award Flight bookings consisting solely of flights with Austrian Airlines, Lufthansa, Lufthansa City and SWISS in each direction or at least on the intercontinental route to or from Europe, flexible mileage amounts will apply from 3 June 2025 instead of the mileage amounts listed in the chart below. These will be shown on the booking platform booking platform when you book online.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Information applies to bookings from 3 June 2025. The current Award Flight chart can be found at miles-and-more.com. The current T&Cs for Award Flights apply. Mileage amounts displayed apply to out-bound and return flights, and for intercontinental trips they include a continental connecting flight operated by a Miles & More airline partner. Changes to the Award Flight chart that lead to an increase in the miles required will be announced three months in advance in the Miles & More newsletter and online at miles-and-more.com. <sup>2</sup>Exceptions to this are the special terms and conditions/special mileage amounts that apply to selected Miles & More airline partners. It is not possible to combine flights operated by Austrian Airlines, Lufthansa, Lufthansa City or SWISS and a different Miles & More airline partner per travel direction for connecting flights within Europe. <sup>3</sup>Does not apply to World Award Flights or 3-region Award Flights, for which only the mileage amounts from the chart continue to apply. <sup>4</sup>Not currently serviced by Star Alliance. <sup>5</sup>Only on flights operated by Austrian Airlines, Brussels Airlines, Discover Airlines, Eurowings, Lufthansa, Lufthansa City and SWISS.

Note: in general, the mileage amounts listed in the Star Alliance Award Flight chart apply to flights operated by the Miles & More airline partners Air Astana (only on selected routes), Air Dolomiti, Cathay Pacific (only on selected routes), Discover Airlines, Eurowings, ITA Airways, LATAM Airlines, Luxair and Olympic.

On certain routes, special mileage amounts apply to flights operated by Croatia Airlines.

The destinations available in the respective regions are determined by the Lufthansa and Miles & More airline partner timetables applicable at the time of booking. Mileage amounts and connections shown here may not be covered by the current Lufthansa and Miles & More airline partner timetables. The availability of Award Flights may vary depending on the date, season and destination. Some Award Flights may not be available at certain times. Furthermore, for any Award Flight you claim, you will also be required to pay any taxes, fees, airline surcharges payable to the respective airlines and incidental service charges. Mileage amounts shown here may not represent the most favourable flight connection for you.
